When it comes to financial matters,
we support our clients across generations—as partners and on a personal and individual basis.

1. «Wissenshaus Baumann & Cie»

As a reliable and competent partner, we ask the crucial questions so that we can understand our clients' personal needs and expectations, and formulate concrete objectives on that basis.

As an owner-led company, we support our clients as equals and with entrepreneurial vision. We put the jointly defined strategy into practice and highlight new perspectives and customised approaches.

Our core competencies are asset management and investment advice. Financial planning, advice on retirement provision, inheritance, and succession, funding, and tax and accounting services complete the range of services in our «Wissenshaus».

We provide our clients with access to our unique investments and only give recommendations for those in which we ourselves also invest with conviction.

With our solution-oriented, uncomplicated services, we simplify life for our clients, supporting them with enthusiasm and commitment to help them achieve their objectives.

2. Discretionary asset management and investment advice

Discretionary asset management and investment advice play a central role within the «Wissenshaus Baumann & Cie». We aim to preserve and increase your assets with other supplementary services through our comprehensive advisory services. To do so, we always focus on your personal investment objectives—from strategy through to the active management of your portfolio and monitoring of risks. This way, you know that your assets are always in good hands.
